

AUST ARCHITECTURE GRADUATE WON 'KSRM AWARDS FOR FUTURE ARCHITECTS 2019'

Honorable Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dr. Muhammad Fazli Ilahi and award winner architect Bristy Sarker

AUST is extremely proud and delighted to inform that, “Bristy Sarker”- a graduate from Department of Architecture of AUST has been honored with ‘KSRM AWARDS FOR FUTURE ARCHITECTS 2019’ for Best Architecture Thesis’ in association with IAB.

Honorable Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dr. Muhammad Fazli Ilahi (centre) with Head of the Department Architecture Prof. Dr. Shehzad Zahi (3rd from left), award winner architect Bristy Sarker (3rd from right) along with the Faculty Members.

Bristy has received 'Second Prize' for her thesis project titled "Pottery Village-A Sustainable Settlement of Potter". She is from 32nd batch of Department of Architecture and completed her thesis work in session 'Fall 2018". Along with the student, the Department and the studio teachers- Prof. Dr. M A Muktadir, Ms. Ayasha Siddiqua and Ms. Nujaba Binte Kabir too were acknowledged in the Award program for their excellent guidance. Her thesis supervisor was Ms. Razia Sultana.

Mr. S. M. Rezaul Karim, Minister of Housing and Public Works; Mr. Mohibul Hasan Chowdhury, Deputy Minister, Ministry of Education and others.

A total of 28 projects from 10 IAB accredited architecture schools of the country were submitted for the competition. Each school was asked to recommend at least three well completed thesis projects from last academic year and only then accepted for participation in the Student Awards Program at national level. All the entries were then publicly displayed in a three-day long Exhibition from December 25 to December 27, 2019 at IAB Center. The exhibition was open for all and widely visited by students, architects, academician and professionals.

A panel of eminent jurors Ar. Mohammad Ali Naqi (Vice-chancellor of Stamford University Bangladesh), Dr. Fuad H Mallick (Professor and Dean, School of Design, BRAC University), Dr. Farida Nilufar (Professor of Architecture at BUET), Ar. SaifUl Haque (Aga Khan award 2019 winner and Director Research and Design program, Bengal Institute for Architecture, Landscape and Settlement) and Ar. Mustafa Ameen (Principle and Proprietor of Domus Architects) evaluated these projects.

Few Photos of “Pottery Village”

The award giving ceremony was held on 8th January 2020 at Hotel Inter Continental Dhaka .Mr .S. M. Rezaul Karim MP-Honorable Minister, Minister of Housing and Public Works; Mr. Mohibul Hasan Chowdhury MP-Honorable Deputy Minister, Ministry of Education of Govt. of the People’s Republic of Bangladesh; Shahriar Jahan-DMD, KSRM Steel Plant Ltd; Ar. Jalal Ahmed-President IAB were present on the occasion and awarded the crest, certificate and cheques to the winners, their institution and mentors. Along with them, participating students, their parents, academicians and professionals were too present in this grand program.

“KSRM Awards for the Future Architects” is a student award program organized by KSRM (Kabir Steel Re-Rolling Mills) in association with IAB. The award is intended to recognize the best thesis/final projects of the graduating students of IAB accredited architecture schools of Bangladesh, to honor the studio teachers, the schools and to showcase the selected exemplary thesis/ final projects of the architecture schools. The Award program will be held once in a year, beginning from 2019.

Dean Prof. Dr. M. A. Muktadir, Head of the Department Prof. Dr. Shehzad Zahir and Faculty Members with award winner architect Bristy Sarker.